1. Peterborough Diocese Education Trust's Written Statement of Behaviour Principles

Peterborough Diocese Education Trust's (the Trust) vision is 'Working together for all pupils to realise their God given potential to flourish.' In order to flourish, children need an environment that encourages and reinforces good behaviour:

'start children off on the way they should go and when they are old they will not turn from it.'

Proverbs 22:6

The Trust wants children to live happy and fulfilled lives and to be active learners and active citizens. To enable children to do this, the Trust believes children need to have self-respect and high self-esteem and a sense of individual and collective responsibility. As a Trust, we believe all humans are created in the image of God and therefore have equal rights and responsibilities. Children should be taught explicitly about these rights and responsibilities as a source of empowerment, entitlement and responsibility. In addition, we believe children should be taught how to live by Christian values and principles and how to put them into practice.

Underpinned by our Christian values, we are, therefore, committed to ensuring:

- Our pupils understand how they should treat other people and how they should expect to be treated.
- Every pupil understands they have the right to feel safe, valued and respected and learn free from the disruption of others.
- Our pupils take on moral responsibilities; care for each other; demonstrate good manners; show consideration; be trustworthy young people who show respect and love for each other and take responsibility for their actions.
- Our pupils develop positive attitudes to learning which includes developing a commitment to learning, resilience and taking pride in achievements.
- We teach good behaviour.
- All staff and volunteers demonstrate our values in everything they do, set an excellent example to pupils at all times and have positive relationships with pupils.
- All staff have high expectations for behaviour.
- All pupils, staff and visitors are non-discriminatory.
- Rewards, sanctions and, if necessary positive handling, are used effectively and consistently by staff, in line with this behaviour policy.
- A collective understanding (pupils, parents and staff) of this behaviour policy.
- Involvement of families in behaviour incidents, where appropriate, to foster good relationships between the academy and a pupil's home life.
- Exclusions are only used as a last resort. Our exclusions policy outlines the processes involved in fixed term and permanent exclusions.

The Trust emphasises that we do not expect violence or threatening behaviour in our academies and this will not be tolerated.

This written statement of behaviour principles is reviewed and approved by the Trust every year.

2. Aims

This policy sets out the Trust's expectations in relation to behaviour in line with the overarching principles above. The individual academy's approach to behaviour is set out in Appendix 1. The policy aims to ensure academies across the Trust:

- Create a calm and orderly environment that encourages and reinforces good behaviour.
- Set clear routines and expectations for the behaviour of pupils across all aspects of academy life, not just in the classroom.
- Have a positive and respectful academy culture which promotes self-esteem, self-discipline and positive relationships between all members of the academy community and where pupils feel safe and can learn.
- Teach good behaviour.
- Define acceptable standards of behaviour.
- Provide a consistent approach to both good and unacceptable behaviour.
- Outline an academy's system of rewards and sanctions that are applied consistently and fairly by all staff.
- Define what is considered to be unacceptable behaviour, including bullying, peer-on-peer abuse (online and off line) and discriminatory behaviour and ensure such behaviour is dealt with quickly, consistently and effectively.
- Provide clarity regarding the roles and responsibilities of different people in the academy community with regards to behaviour.
- Encourage the involvement of the whole academy community in the implementation of this policy.

3. Legislation and statutory requirements

This policy is based on the following relevant legislation and advice from the Department for Education (DfE):

- Behaviour and discipline in schools
- The Equality Act 2010
- Use of reasonable force in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school
- Special educational needs and disability \(SEND\) code of practice
- Schedule 1 of the Education \(Independent School Standards\) Regulations 2014; (paragraph 7 outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children, paragraph 9 requires the school to have a written behaviour policy and paragraph 10 requires the school to have an anti-bullying strategy)
- DfE guidance explaining that academies should publish their behaviour policy and anti-bullying strategy online.

This policy complies with the Trust's funding agreement and articles of association.

4. The Teaching and Encouragement of Good Behaviour

We believe that positive, good behaviour needs to be taught. First and foremost, good behaviour will be explicitly modelled by all adults to pupils from the first day of entering the academy and consistently reinforced and developed throughout their primary years.

Behaviour expectations will be made explicit at all times. Strategies for encouraging good choices of behaviour are fundamental, as is a consistent approach across the academy:

4.1 Rewards, incentives and sanctions

It is important that pupils are not patronised by providing rewards and incentives that are neither necessary nor wanted. However, rewards and incentives have a powerful motivational role, particularly for pupils whose self-discipline is at an early stage, and help pupils to see that good behaviour is valued.

The most common reward is praise, informal and formal, public and private, to individuals and groups. It is earned by the maintenance of good standards as well as by particularly noteworthy achievements. This is as true for adults as for children. Rates of praise for behaviour should be as high as for work.

Although rewards are central to the encouragement of good behaviour, realistically there is a need for sanctions or consequences to register the disapproval of unacceptable behaviour. Most instances of poor choices of behaviour are relatively minor / low level and can be adequately dealt with through minor sanctions. It is important that the sanction is not out of proportion to the poor choice of behaviour / frequency of poor choice.

For details of an individual academy's rewards and sanctions – see Appendix 1.

In addition, behaviour will be taught through the provision of the following:

4.2 High Quality Curriculum and Learning:

We believe that an appropriately structured curriculum and effective learning are needed for good behaviour as they help to avoid the alienation or disaffection which can lie at the root of poor choices of behaviour. These should be achieved through:

- Planning for the needs of individual pupils.
- Lessons with clear objectives and success steps understood by the pupils.
- The active involvement of pupils in their own learning.
- Teaching methods which encourage enthusiasm and active participation for all. Lessons should aim to develop the knowledge and understanding which will enable pupils to work and play in collaboration with others.
- Structured feedback that will be used as a supportive activity, providing feedback to the pupils on their progress and achievements and as a signal that the pupil's efforts are valued and that progress matters.

4.3 Effective Classroom Management

This should be achieved through:

- A classroom which provides a welcoming environment.
- A classroom environment which gives clear messages to the pupils about the extent to which they and their efforts are valued.
- Good relationships between teacher, support staff and pupils.
- Classrooms organised to develop independence and personal initiative. Pupils should have increasing opportunities to take responsibility for tasks and roles in the classroom and around the academy as they get older.
- Arrangements of furniture and access to resources as all have a bearing on the way pupils behave. Furniture should therefore be arranged to provide an environment conducive to on-task behaviour. Materials and resources should be arranged to aid accessibility and reduce uncertainty and disruption.
- Classroom displays which help develop self-esteem through demonstrating the value of every individual's contribution.

4.4 Good Behaviour at Unstructured Times

Playtimes and lunchtimes are the most unstructured part of the academy day. By talking and playing with others, and participating in extra-curricular activities, pupil's social development is greatly enhanced. It is a time, too, when individuals who are less successful in forming constructive relationships with others can create difficulties for both themselves and others.

Good behaviour at unstructured times should be achieved through:

- Good relationships between teacher, support staff and pupils.
- Clear routines that are understood by all.
- Explicit expectations regarding what is acceptable and unacceptable behaviour.
- The provision of structured tasks to engage the pupils.

For details of an individual academy's strategies for encouraging good behaviour during unstructured times – see Appendix 1.

4.5 Good Behaviour Off-site

Sanctions may be applied where a pupil has behaved in an unacceptable way off-site when representing the academy, such as on an academy trip or on the way to or from the academy.

5. Unacceptable / Serious Unacceptable Behaviour

5.1 Definitions

Unacceptable behaviour is defined as:

- Non-compliant behaviour (to adult requests);

- Low level disruption in lessons and at unstructured times;
- Non-completion of classwork;
- Rudeness to adults and other pupils;
- Poor language.

Serious unacceptable behaviour is defined as, but not limited to:

- Persistent non-compliant behaviour (to adult requests);
- High level disruption in lessons and at unstructured times;
- Repeated breach of the academy rules;
- Threatening and / or intimidating behaviour;
- Verbal aggression;
- Swearing;
- Any form of bullying;
- Racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory behaviour;
- Sexual assault, which is any unwanted sexual behaviour that causes humiliation, pain, fear or intimidation;
- Sexting;
- Physical aggression and / or violence;
- Vandalism;
- Theft;
- Smoking;
- Possession of any prohibited items. These are:
  - Knives or weapons;
  - Alcohol;
  - Illegal drugs;
  - Stolen items;
  - Tobacco and cigarette papers;
  - Fireworks;
  - Pornographic images.
- Having any article a staff member reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to the property of, any person (including the pupil).

5.2 Incidents of Unacceptable Behaviour

5.2.1 Bullying

Bullying is defined as:

“Bullying behaviour involves an imbalance of power where a person or group of people repeatedly and intentionally cause emotional or physical harm to another person or group of people. Isolated instances of hurtful behaviour, teasing or arguments between individuals of equal power should not be seen as bullying.”

(Torfaen definition 2008)

Bullying is, therefore:

- Deliberately hurtful;
- Repeated, often over a period of time;

- Difficult to defend against;
- Premeditated and usually forms a pattern of behaviour rather than an isolated incident;
- Involves dominance of one pupil by another, or group of others.

Bullying can include:

Type of bullying	Definition
Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting, ridiculing
Physical	Hitting, kicking, pushing, taking another's belongings, any use of violence
Psychological	Deliberate acts which cause fear or anxiety
Racial	Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
Homophobic	Because of, or focussing on, the issue of sexuality
Sexual	Explicit sexual remarks, display of sexual material, sexual gestures, unwanted physical attention, comments about sexual reputation or performance, or inappropriate touching
Religious	Related to religious beliefs and practices
Cultural	Related to cultural beliefs and practices
Direct or indirect verbal	Name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
Cyber-bullying	Bullying that takes place online, such as through social networking sites, messaging apps or gaming sites

We recognise as a Trust that:

- Bullying can occur. However, our intention is to ensure pupils learn in a supportive, caring and safe environment without the fear of being bullied and that staff are free from the fear of being bullied by pupils.
- Everyone has the right to feel welcome, secure and happy.
- Bullying of any sort prevents equality of opportunity.
- All forms of bullying, especially if left unaddressed, can have a devastating effect on individuals; it can create a barrier to learning and have serious consequences for mental wellbeing.
- By effectively preventing and tackling bullying, the Trust can help to create a safe and disciplined environment where pupils are able to learn and to fulfil their potential.

Where bullying exists the victims must feel confident to activate the anti-bullying systems within the academy to end the bullying. It is the Trust's aim to challenge attitudes about bullying behaviour, increase understanding for bullied pupils and help build an anti-bullying ethos across the Trust.

Details of an individual academy's approach to preventing and addressing bullying are set out in Appendix 1 / Anti-Bullying Policy.

5.2.2 Prohibited / Unacceptable Items Brought on Site

Any prohibited items (listed in Section 6.1) found in a pupil's possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to pupils.

Any item which is harmful or detrimental to academy discipline will also be confiscated. These items will be returned to pupils / parents after discussion with senior leaders and parents, if appropriate.

5.2.3 Malicious Allegations

Where a pupil makes an accusation against a member of staff and that accusation is shown to have been malicious, the headteacher will discipline the pupil.

Please refer to the Trust's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy for the Trust's policy / statement of procedures for dealing with allegations of abuse against staff or for more information on responding to allegations of abuse.

The headteacher will also consider the pastoral needs of staff accused of misconduct.

6. Communication and Parental Partnership

We give high priority to clear communication within each academy and to a positive partnership with parents / carers since these are crucial in promoting and maintaining high standards of behaviour. It is important that parents and academies work together for the good of each child. Parents are involved in celebrating the successes as well as being involved when a child's behaviour is unacceptable.

A positive partnership with parents is crucial to building trust and developing a common approach to behaviour expectations and strategies for dealing with problems. Parental participation in many aspects of academy life is encouraged. This participation assists the development of positive relationships in which parents are more likely to be responsive if academies require their support in dealing with difficult issue of unacceptable behaviour.

Academies will communicate policy and expectations to parents. Where behaviour is causing concern parents will be informed at an early stage, and given an opportunity to discuss the situation. Parental support will be sought in devising a plan of action.

7. Pupil Support

The Trust recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent pupils with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our academies' approach to unacceptable behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the pupil.

Where the behaviour of a child is giving cause for concern it is important that all those working with the child in the academy are aware of those concerns, and of the steps which are being taken in response. The key professional in this process of communication is the class teacher who has the initial responsibility for the child's welfare. Early warning of concerns should be communicated to the Headteacher / SENCo so that strategies can be discussed and agreed before more formal steps are required.

The individual academy's SENCo will evaluate a pupil who exhibits unacceptable behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met. Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and / or others, to identify or support specific needs. When high / complex needs are identified in a pupil, the academy will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. They will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

8. Positive Handling

In some circumstances, it may be necessary for staff to use reasonable force to positively handle a pupil to prevent them being a risk to their own or others' safety.

Incidents of positive handling must:

- Always be used as a last resort;
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible;
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned;
- Never be used as a form of punishment;
- Be recorded and reported to parents.

Positive handling should only be undertaken by staff who have been appropriately trained. All incidents involving positive handling are recorded for safeguarding purposes in MyConcern.

9. Alternative Provision

Some pupils with high and complex needs, relating to behaviour, will access alternative provision if this is deemed appropriate to meet such needs. This will take place following necessary support and advice from a range of professionals and in consultation with parents. If alternative provision is accessed by a child, academies will ensure that this provision is suitable and safe and whether the alternative provision is a registered provider. Where an academy is using an unregistered provider, the academy must have an adequate quality assurance process in place. Academies will continue to take responsibility for pupils who access alternative provision.

10. Pupil Transition

To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, pupils have transition sessions with their new teacher(s). In addition, staff members hold transition meetings.

To ensure behaviour is continually monitored and the right support is in place, information related to pupil behaviour issues may be transferred to relevant staff at the start of the term or year. Information on behaviour issues may also be shared with new settings for those pupils transferring to other academies / schools.

11. Roles and Responsibilities

11.1 Academy Governance Committees (AGCs)

AGCs are responsible for reviewing and approving, Appendix 1 to this policy and for monitoring the implementation and effectiveness of this behaviour policy.

11.2 The Headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for reviewing Appendix 1 of this policy to ensure it reflects their individual academy's approach, and for recommending approval of Appendix 1 to the AGC.

The headteacher will implement this policy and will monitor how staff implement it.

11.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Demonstrating the academy's and the Trust's values in everything they do;
- Implementing the behaviour policy consistently;
- Modelling positive behaviour;
- Teaching good behaviour;
- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils;
- Recording behaviour incidents.

The senior leadership team will support staff in responding to behaviour incidents.

11.4 Parents

A positive partnership with parents / carers is crucial to building trust and developing a common approach to behaviour expectations and strategies for dealing with problems.

Parents are expected to:

- Support their child in adhering to the Pupil Code of Conduct;
- Inform the academy of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour;
- Discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly;
- Enter into a home / academy agreement.

11.5 Pupils

For an individual academy's Pupil Code of Conduct – see Appendix 1.

12. Monitoring arrangements

This Behaviour policy will be reviewed by the Trust (and Appendix 1 by the Headteacher and AGC) every year.

13. Links with other policies

This behaviour policy is linked to the following policies:

- Exclusions policy
- Positive Handling policy
- Child Protection and Safeguarding policy
- SEND
- Equalities Statement

Individual Academy Information

Name of Academy: Loddington C of E Primary School

Vision and Values

At Loddington C of E Primary School, we strive to ensure that all of our children enjoy school in our happy, welcoming environment. Through our engaging curriculum and placing Christian Values at the heart of all we do, we hope to inspire children to become confident and caring individuals who live life in all its fullness. We strongly believe that we must provide a holistic, respectful and child centred experience that allows each and every child to achieve their full potential.

Jesus said “I have come that they may have life, and have it in all its fullness.”
(John 10:10).

“Our School has no power and love without the showing of our values”

We aim to:

- provide many and varied opportunities for learning, always recognising and developing the abilities, talents and diversity of each individual.
- celebrate the achievements of each and every child encouraging them to be the best they can be.
- further develop the school as a unique and diverse community set at the heart of the wider community it serves.
- to develop the children as responsible citizens who are equipped to meet the challenges of the future in an ever-changing multi-cultural society.
- embed Christian values in everything we do.

We seek to create a caring, Christian learning environment at our school through promoting our school values:

- Respect
- Perseverance
- Friendship
- Honesty
- Trust
- Peace

These Christian virtues also closely correlate to those which we consider to be the core British Values and which we also seek to instil in our children. This will ensure that they understand the importance of respect and leave school fully prepared for life in modern Britain. These British Values are:

- Supporting democracy
- Following the rule of law,
- Celebrating and appreciating individual liberties
- Having mutual respect for, and tolerance of, those with different faiths and beliefs.

The Teaching and Encouragement of Good Behaviour

- The explicit teaching of good behaviour:

In order to enable effective teaching and learning to take place, good behaviour in all aspects of school life is necessary. Our staff model positive behaviour and insist upon high standards. All adults in our school have high expectations of the children in terms of behaviour, and they strive to ensure that all children work to the best of their ability. Children are treated fairly and this behaviour policy is enforced consistently. All staff treat children with respect and understanding. Children learn in an environment that fosters trust and respect at all levels. We address our expectations of good behaviour and living by our vision and values in Collective Worship sessions each week. We teach through reference to Biblical stories and modern-day examples of how our school rules and values should be lived every day. Positive behaviour is dealt with by praise and rewards, often involving parents. Behaviour, which may not be following the school's high standards, is discussed with the child and their parents to work together to foster better outcomes for the child.

- Rewards / incentives

Our school ethos of praise and encouragement is central to the promotion of good behaviour. Our staff acknowledge positive behaviour and sensible choices, praising children for demonstrating this and the expectations we set out for our children. Rewards also have a motivational role in helping pupils to realise that good behaviour is valued, and are clearly defined in the procedures. Integral to the system of rewards is an emphasis on praise both informal and formal to individuals and groups.

Strategies for promoting positive behaviour (including rewards):

- Good quality teaching
- Clear and consistent high expectations
- Praise used effectively and specifically
- Celebration of success (sharing in class, Celebration Assembly, display board for achievements out of school)
- Children are given roles and responsibilities around school (sports crew, house captains, school council members, ethos committee members, garden & grounds crew, play leaders)
- House Points for values related actions/manners/work produced. At the end of each half term, the winning house team receives a treat!
- Dojo Points for class related activities
- Postcard home for showing of our values
- Student of the week certificate which is given out in Celebration Assembly
- Values display board where post it notes are written for behaviours/actions that have been seen for our value of the term
- Headteacher's award may also be given to a student who has stood out or has completed some exceptional work
- Messages via seesaw

The academy may use one or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour:

- Verbal reminders
- Move to another place in the classroom
- Sending the pupil out of the class to a peer class
- Expecting work to be completed at home or break/lunch
- Loss of playtime / lunchtime
- Eating separately
- An apology letter
- Referring the pupil to a senior member of staff
- Informing parents and parental discussion
- Internal or external exclusion

Strategies for dealing with persistent unacceptable behaviour may include:

- Regular discussion with child and parent
- Agreeing a behaviour contract
- Individual behaviour plans
- Tracking a child's behaviour (personal reward charts)
- Structured lunchtimes
- Team of adults working closely to support the child
- Knowing individual children well and awareness of their 'trigger points' and how to avoid these
- Personalised consequences to deal with very specific behaviour
- Referral to outside agencies
- Restraint (some staff are trained in 'positive handling' techniques. De-escalation is the first strategy and handling children is a last resort. Restraint is only used when children are at risk of harming themselves or others, damaging property or seriously disrupting the learning of others. Parents are informed)
- Internal exclusion
- Fixed term exclusion
- Permanent exclusion

Bullying

Bullying is defined, by County, as 'persistent, regular, conscious intimidation by someone who has power over another person.' Our school does not tolerate bullying of any kind. When we are made aware that an act of bullying or intimidation has taken place, we act immediately to stop any further occurrences of such behaviour. This involves talking to the children to establish points of view from both sides, talking to all concerned staff and all parents concerned. All staff are vigilant to instances of different types bullying. Awareness of bullying and bullying situations is regularly discussed in whole class worship and through class circle time. Issues are always pursued by the class teacher or head teacher when they occur. The victim will be listened to and involved in dialogue with the head teacher and parents. They will be supported at all times.

All parents and carers are informed regularly of the need to report such incidents as soon as possible. It is often not a clear-cut case of one child bullying another and all parties need reminding that situations are very complex.

Parents/carers of children involved in bullying will be informed calmly, clearly and concisely. The school will explain their sanctions and expect support from the home. No incident will be held against any pupil for a prolonged period of time and parents will be reassured of this.

Please also refer to our Anti-Bullying Policy (available on our school website).

Pupil Code of Conduct

- Behave in an orderly manner
- Show respect to members of staff and each other
- In class, make it possible for all pupils to learn
- Accept sanctions when given
- Treat the academy buildings and academy property with respect
- Refrain from behaving in a way that brings the academy into disrepute, including when outside the academy
